

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE

CASE MANAGEMENT INSTRUCTIONS – STANDARD CIVIL CASES

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 and Local Rule 16 shall guide the conduct of the parties in their preparation of the case.

I. SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

A Rule 16 scheduling conference will be conducted by the Court as soon as possible, but no later than within 180 days after the filing of the complaint or within 60 days of the filing of the return of service or waiver of service of the last defendant, whichever is earlier.

II. ATTENDANCE REQUIRED

The attendance of counsel with significant knowledge of the case and all unrepresented parties is required at the scheduling conference. Counsel and unrepresented parties must be prepared to address any pending motions as well as motions which may be raised orally at the conference. Counsel and unrepresented parties must also be prepared to discuss the case in depth and make binding decisions regarding how the case will proceed. The Court prefers to have counsel in person at the conference, but out-of-town counsel may request permission from the Court to participate in the conference by phone. The request to participate by phone must be in writing at least five (5) days prior to the conference and include the names and telephone numbers of all parties participating via phone.

III. BEFORE THE SCHEDULING CONFERENCE: MEET AND CONFER

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), the parties shall, at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the Rule 16 scheduling conference, meet for discussion and the preparation of a proposed discovery plan that outlines the discovery you need in this case. The parties shall file with the Court a written report outlining the proposed discovery plan, and email a proposed scheduling order using the format of Exhibit “A”, attached to these Instructions, to ECF_Judge_Parker@tnwd.uscourts.gov at least seven (7) days before the first scheduling conference. Please propose appropriate deadlines for the specific case at issue rather than simply defaulting to the approximated schedule from the form order attached.

Although abrogated effective December 1, 2015, Form 52, Appendix to Fed. R. Civ. P. contained a checklist of items to be discussed at the Rule 26 (f) and included in your written report. These items and the requirements contained in Rule 26(f) include:

- (1) Subjects on which discovery will be needed, including when discovery should be completed, and whether discovery should be conducted in phases or be limited to or focused on particular issues;

- (2) How the disclosure, discovery, or preservation of electronically stored information will be conducted, including a description of the parties' proposals and the form or forms for production;
- (3) A brief description of any agreement regarding claims of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation materials, including — if the parties agree on a procedure to assert these claims after production — whether to ask the Court to include their agreement in an order under Fed. R. Evid. 502;
- (4) The maximum number of interrogatories by each party to another party, along with dates the answers are due;
- (5) The maximum number of requests for admissions, including dates when responses are due;
- (6) The maximum number of depositions for each party and limits on the length of depositions, in hours;
- (7) Dates for exchanging expert witness reports;
- (8) Dates for supplementation under Rule 26(e);
- (9) Final dates to amend pleadings or join parties;
- (10) Final dates to file dispositive motions;
- (11) A statement regarding the prospects for settlement, including any alternative dispute resolution procedure that may enhance settlement prospects;
- (12) An estimate of trial length; and
- (13) Any other items encompassed by Rules 16(b) and 26(f).

IV. SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED AT SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

Generally, at the scheduling conference, the following subjects will be addressed:

The status of the case, the general nature of the claims and defenses, issues in the case, and potential use of experts;

Jurisdictional and statute of limitations issues (if motions have not already been filed, the Court should be advised at the scheduling conference that there are preliminary matters which require early disposition, such as questions of class certification, qualified immunity, or conflict of interest should be raised at the first possible occasion and no later than the initial Rule 16(b) scheduling conference).

Setting of all deadlines in the case (see Exhibit “A”), as well as the trial date, pretrial conference and other appropriate deadlines. The Court expects to set a definite trial date for this case which does not conflict with criminal case settings. The trial date will be consistent with the particular needs of this case and will be no later than eighteen months from the date of filing, unless the Court certifies that the Court’s calendar does not so permit or the complexity of the case requires a later setting.

The desire of the parties to consent to all further proceedings in the case being handled by the magistrate judge in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) (including entry of final judgment, with any appeal made directly to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals);

The possibility of settlement, your position regarding settlement, your proposed deadline to engage in alternative dispute resolution, and whether you have reached an agreement on the selection of a mediator;

Status of all document discovery (parties are encouraged to promptly exchange core document information and, where necessary, to promptly issue requests for production of documents and subpoenas duces tecum to third parties);

Any anticipated discovery problems (i.e., the necessity of protective orders, the necessity of inspection of facilities, witness unavailability, delays which may be occasioned because of an individual’s physical or mental condition, etc.);

Estimated trial time, and any special issues anticipated in connection with trial; and

Any pending motion or motions which may be raised orally at the conference.

V. ORDER TO BE ENTERED

An order will be entered by the Court following the scheduling conference. The order will be based on the proposed order submitted by counsel and the discussion at the conference. The dates adopted will be those that meet the needs of the specific case at issue, even if the dates chosen provide for a shorter schedule for the matter than the general guidelines in Exhibit “A.”

VI. SANCTIONS FOR FAILURE TO APPEAR

Failure to appear at the scheduling conference, or to comply with the directions of the Court set forth herein, may result in an ex parte hearing being held and the entry of such order as is just, including a judgment of dismissal with prejudice, entry of a default judgment, or other appropriate sanctions, such as attorney’s fees and expenses of opposing counsel, without further notice to the party who fails to appear.

PRETRIAL CONFERENCE DATE:

NON/JURY TRIAL: _____, 20__ at 9:30 a.m. Trial is anticipated to last approximately __ days.

The parties [do] / [do not] consent to trial before the Magistrate Judge.

OTHER RELEVANT MATTERS:

As required by Local Rule 26.1(e), the parties have conferred as to whether they will seek discovery of electronically stored information (“e-discovery”) and [have agreed that e-discovery is not appropriate in this case and therefore they will not seek e-discovery] / [have reached an agreement regarding e-discovery and hereby submit the parties’ e-discovery plan for the court’s approval] / [have not reached an agreement regarding e-discovery and will comply with the default standards described in Local Rule 26.1(e) until such time, if ever, the parties reach an agreement and the court approves the parties’ e-discovery plan].

[Pursuant to agreement of the parties, if privileged or protected information is inadvertently produced, the producing party may, by timely notice, assert the privilege or protection and obtain the return of the materials without waiver].

The parties are ordered to engage in ADR before the close of discovery. Under ADR Rule 5.11(b) the mediator is to file a Mediation Certification within seven (7) days after the close of the mediation session reporting the date of the session, whether the case settled as a whole or in part and whether any follow up is scheduled. And under LR 16.3(d), within seven (7) days after the mediator submits the Mediation Certification, the parties shall file a notice confirming that ADR was conducted and indicating whether it was successful or unsuccessful, without disclosing the parties’ respective positions.

Pursuant to Local Rule 7.2(a)(1)(A), all motions, except motions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12, 56, 59, and 60, shall be accompanied by a proposed order in a word processing format sent to the ECF mailbox of the presiding judge.

Pursuant to Local Rule 7.2(a)(1)(B), the parties are required to consult prior to filing any motion (except motions filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12, 56, 59, and 60).

The opposing party must file a response to any opposed motion. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.2(a)(2), a party’s failure to respond timely to any motion, other than one requesting dismissal of a claim or action, may be deemed good grounds for granting the motion.

Neither party may file an additional reply to any motion, other than a motion filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) or 56, without leave of the court. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.2(c), if a party believes that a reply is necessary, it shall file a motion for leave to file a reply within 7 days of service of the response, setting forth the reasons why a reply is required.

This order has been entered after consultation with the parties. Absent good cause shown, the deadlines set by this order will not be modified or extended.

SO ORDERED, this __ day of _____, 20__.
