

According to the R&R,

Neither the complaint nor any of the documents submitted by [Plaintiff] reveal any connection to Tennessee generally, or the Western District of Tennessee specifically . . . . As far as the court can tell, the complaint lists events that occurred exclusively in Colorado. The court is unaware of any connection to [the Western District of Tennessee] such that venue would be proper here.”

“Within 14 days after being served with a copy of the recommended disposition, a party may serve and file specific written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2). Plaintiff did not file an objection to the R&R, and the time for filing objections expired on May 29, 2018. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2), 6(d), 72(b)(2).

“When no timely objection is filed, the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b) advisory committee note. On review, the Court finds that there is no clear error. Quite to the contrary, the R&R is well-reasoned and correct. So, this Court hereby ADOPTS the R&R in its entirety and TRANSFERS this action under § 1406(a). The Clerk shall order the transfer of this action to the District of Colorado. This case shall be closed without an entry of judgment.

SO ORDERED, this 29th day of June, 2018.
